

Dear Mr. Girard:

Today we leave the life and the school which your generosity has provided for Girardians for more than one hundred years. You have done for us what a father would have done for his own children. As fatherless boys, we are deeply aware of the great help which you gave our mothers when they were heavily burdened, and you have made us proud to be one of your family.

Here we have shared the joys and sorrows, the successes and failures of our brothers and classmates for ten years. In this home we have learned to share and to live together as friends. We have found a meaning in all this that will never die. How different our lives would have been without these associations, fortunately we shall never know.

The hours in the classrooms, on the playing fields, in the library, and in the dormitories have given us a well-rounded preparation to face the life before us. We believe that we have the moral strength, the physical stamina, and the developed ability to contribute something worthwhile to society, as you have to us. Perhaps the best way to express our thanks to you is in the doing of deeds of which you will be proud. Wherever we go we shall always have these thoughts in our minds.

Very soon we shall all go our separate ways, scattered in our various states, some to college, some to work, all to begin a new life. We have your faith in us to guide us, and your thousands of sons to give us examples to follow. It is with grateful hearts that we thank you and pray that our lives and accomplishments will be worthy of your greatness.

Sincerely,

The Class of June 1958

It must be true; Casey told me.
Gotcha!

You will remember from your knowledge of French . . .
Master, here's a lad.
You have the most insincere eyes I've ever seen.
You boys know the rules.
Yes sir, there's much to be said on both sides of the question.
Daddy, what's a meese?
That machine doesn't want to be typed on.
Ham and cabbage again!
Take it from there!
Just the facts, boy! No hot air.
Two got through, but I got you.
Why don't you guys come out and play a man's game!
Wanta wager?
Say! It took you nine minutes to clear the building.
Going down tonight?
Now, the big cry in America . . .
Around the playground, go!
Put your hand on the window. Feel the pain? Ha! Ha!

As we, the Seniors, prepare to step over the threshold of a new life, those of us who were on the "Girard News" staff can look back to an entirely enriching and satisfying year of running the school paper.

At the beginning of our Senior year the responsibility of reporting, editing, and printing the paper fell into our previously untried hands. At first we wrestled awkwardly with this new responsibility. With our persistence, determination, and the capable help of Mr. C. E. MacGregor we can look back on a very wholesome experience.

The compiling and editing of our paper was handled admirably by Walter Casey, James McKendrick, Robert M. Costello, and Joseph Sawicki. Under the leadership of Lynn Ritchey and his capable staff of sports reporters the readers received wonderful coverage of the sports events during the year. Also the staff of ten columnists and special assistants and the reporters did a fine job.

True, few, if any, of us will become reporters or journalists, but we can think back with pride that with our persistence and combined efforts we brought to the students and faculty of Girard the current news of our campus life and have learned to work together.

Now as we depart from Girard with mingled feelings of joy and sorrow we must hand the responsibility of the paper to the Juniors. May they have the capable leadership, the hard workers, and the degree of success that we have attained. We now give the Juniors the responsibility of the paper and the challenge of our past record; let us hope that they answer it well!

Fourth Row: R. Costello, H. Friebel*

The "Girardian" during the present year was a magazine of real merit. Co-Editors-in-Chief Henry Grabowski and Charles Anton, whose writing ability is recognized by all of us, have created a publication of good quality and unusual interest. The contents were varied and representative of the literary efforts of the students.

The staff members were: Bob Blizzard, Nigel Bowman, Robert Chryst, Robert Costello, Barry Davis, Edward Eglowsky, Harry Friebe, Joseph Sawicki, Edward Woolweaver, Mike Berman, Charles Zarcone, John Roach, James Bramley, and Sam McDonald. Dave Chryst and Mike Berman were responsible for the art work. Harry Friebe carried on as business manager.

The Fall issue contained many contributions from the Elementary School. This was an experiment which turned out to be very successful. John Urofsky was chosen to direct and encourage the development of this project. The Spring issue was devoted to the work of the upper school, with emphasis on the efforts of Juniors and Seniors.

Dr. Haskell and editors

Creation of the layout, and the make-up work in the Print Shop was in the hands of Wayne Vanderaar, under the supervision of Mr. M. Arnold Daffin. Those of us who realize the amount of work involved in this phase of the Girardian are particularly appreciative of their contribution.

Dr. Raymond I. Haskell, who this year served as sponsor, has been the source of all our energies. Without his guidance, mediocrity would replace good accomplishment.

To all of those who have been instrumental in making the Girardian possible, we extend our thanks and appreciation.

This "Corinthian" is the final record of the history and the accomplishments of the Class of June 1958.

John Moser and Jack Schade, our Co-Editors-in-Chief have given freely of their time, talents, and energy in the planning and creation of our yearbook. Together with their excellent staff they have, we believe, produced a class book of which we all are proud.

For the job of writing up the story of our activities and our organizations, Charlie Anton, Joel Batalsky, Edward Eglowsky, Henry Grabowsky, and Gilbert Herbert have earned our commendation.

The important task of "Corinthian" photography was filled by Tom Martin and Norm Kaucher whose interesting work will be remembered for years to come.

The art work was exceptionally well done this year by David Christ, Malin Wilson, and Richard Stidham. The originality on the part of the boys made this section a standout.

Gerald Gallagher was appointed for the difficult position of Printing Advisor. Gerald's intelligent contributions in the layout and make-up of this book were invaluable. Mr. M. Arnold Daffin together with the boys of the Print Shop are deserving of high praise for the job they performed and for the long hours of detailed work they gave.

Malcolm Meizen was the Business Manager this year. Never complaining, Malcolm performed this task efficiently and satisfactorily.

This is our effort to bring the class a lasting glimpse of our lifetime at Girard and to keep the pleasant memory of our foster-home in our minds and hearts through the years to come.

Pride, loyalty, and love of our Alma Mater are embodied in this book.

As the final notes of "Good-Night and Christmas prayer" echoed throughout the Chapel, the Girard College Choir reached the climax of its major performance.

Much of the credit for the success of our Glee Club and Choir must go to Mr. Robert Bush who directed the group and to Miss Juliet Stacks who was our accompanist. We firmly believe that the time and effort that these people so unselfishly gave was the source of the spirit and accomplishment through the year. President Chuck Vrabel, Vice-President Bob Bettarel, Secretary Bill Mell, and Librarian Peter Casey displayed an effective leadership which was commendable.

We shall never forget the Sunday morning processions, the early rehearsals in the auditorium, the seemingly endless repetition of a note or a bar. For each of the members it was very definitely a rewarding experience in music and in the accomplishment which results from good cooperation. Whenever we hear such songs as "Ride the Chariot," the "Battle Hymn of the Republic," "He's Got the Whole World," "The King and I," and "The Polyetsian Songs and Dances," from "Prince Igor," we shall relive some of the pleasures of the music when we sang them.

We must all agree that the Glee Club and Choir have done very much to add to the quality of music heard on the Girard Campus.

Over a five year period the Battalion has imparted to us a set of fundamental drill routines that will form a valuable foundation for actual service in our armed services. Since all phases of actual training have been student controlled, this organization also provided an excellent way to develop the qualities of leadership, initiative, and discipline through our own endeavors.

This year, the command of the Battalion was the responsibility of Cadet Major Wayne Vanderaar who can look back on his work with satisfaction. Supporting our student commander was an efficient staff comprised of Captain of Recruits, Robert Bettarel; Captain-Inspector, David Christ, Lieutenant-Quartermaster, Carl Hoffman; and Battalion-Clerk, Henry Grabowski. In charge of the individual companies were Captain Richard Stidham, Co. A; Captain James McKendrick, Co. B; Captain Robert Blizzard, Co. C; and Captain David Hunscher, Co. D. The Battalion couldn't have been successful without the contributions of the other officers who served in the companies, the large staff of recruit lieutenants, and the color guard under Sergeant-Major Joseph Byrne.

A large measure of credit must go to Colonel Hamilton who was with us every Friday to plan and supervise each week's undertakings. We shall remember the hours devoted to making this organization an asset to the life of the College.

Concert Band

*First Row: Mell, McDonald, Ursone
Second Row: Mr. Morrison, Sawicki, R. Costello, Rotter
Third Row: J. Costello, Friebel, Morrow*

Those of us who have been members of the Concert Band have known a pleasure and a satisfaction in working with each other and Mr. Morrison. In our memories will be the Christmas Concert, the Founder's Day Program, the monthly Chapel performances, May Day at the Zoo, trips on the Wilson Line, exchange concerts with Olney High School and our marching music for the Battalion. In all of these programs we have had a variety of experience which broadened our knowledge.

The success of any group is the reflection of good leadership. Captain Bill Mell has done a praiseworthy job in maintaining the unity and spirit of the members. Assisting him were First Lieutenants, Ken Morrow and Joseph Sawicki; Second Lieutenants, Bob Costello, Jim Costello, and Mike Ursone; and Sergeants, Harry Friebel, Irving Rotter, and Sam McDonald. They have contributed the patience and interest essential to any good work.

Who will ever forget such numbers as "Victory at Sea," "March Slav," "Kurt Weill Highlights," and "Sleigh Ride," directed by Bill Mell at the Christmas Concert. Then there was the original composition of Ed Hoshorian, "Suite in G Minor."

The members of the Band express to Mr. Robert W. Morrison their deepest appreciation for his untiring direction and his devotion to developing our organization.

Again this year as in 1957 the Girard Dramatic Club devoted most of its efforts to one major production; "Stalag 17," a story of American soldiers in a German prison camp during the Second World War. They also contributed good work to the production of the annual Christmas Pageant.

Members of the class of 1958 have played effective roles in plays of past years: "Gringoire and the King," "Let Freedom Ring," and "Stephen Girard, Humanitarian." We believe that these boys have upheld the tradition of accomplished work characteristic of the Club.

Elected to lead the group were Dominic Garofalo, President; James Jacobs, Vice-President; Sedge Tourison, Secretary; and Michael Soccio, Treasurer.

Credit must also be given to those boys whose many hours of hard work behind the scenes made the plays successful.

We are profoundly grateful to Mr. Henry V. Andrews whose devotion to his work and the Club members will long be remembered.

Swing Band

*First Row: Murpby, Sawicki, Ursone, Lane, Friebel
Second Row: Costello, R., Jameson, Michalak, Morrow, Jobanson, Ellis, Mell
Standing: Yocom, Gearbart, Ritchey*

"What a Band!" This has been a familiar expression used by all of us after hearing the 1957-1958 Swing Band perform at our class dances, at officers' hops, and at the famed talent night performance. Bill Mell with his mellow trumpet was the competent, responsible leader who supplied the drive and energy which sparked the music men to success. He introduced such great numbers as "2 o'clock Jump," "3 o'clock Jump," "Unison Riff," and "Early Autumn." These new numbers, together with popular tunes plus a few jazz numbers, made many social evenings highly enjoyable.

Bill Mell represented the seniors on the trumpet and did a commendable job. Mike Ursone, Joe Sawicki, and Harry Friebe were the nucleus of one of the best swing sax sections that Girard has heard in quite some time. What more can be said about that rhythm section? Ken Morrow and John Siford collaborated on two sets of drums, a Girard first. Bob Costello added experience and talent on the Bass.

One of the highlights of the year was a trio, commonly known to us as the "Corinthian Jazz Quintet." This combo starred Ken Morrow on the drums, Bob Costello on the bass, Mike Ursone on the baritone sax, Joe Sawicki on the tenor sax, and a sophomore, Mike Lane, on the alto sax.

Don Gearhart and Tom Yocom have done their share of the work by acting as managers. Lynn Ritchey must be mentioned for his fine work as band electrician.

The Swing Band will always be remembered for that wonderful musical lift they gave to our entire year. It was without a doubt a main factor in making our social affairs just a little better than they would have otherwise been.

National Honor Society

*First Row: Hoffman, Marquette, Meizen

Third Row: Grabowski, Urofsky, McKendrick
Fourth Row: Bettarel, Moser, J. Costello*

Twice during our last two years at Girard, a small group of our classmates were recipients of the high honor of becoming members of the National Honor Society. In a general assembly of the student body each member pledged "to uphold the high purpose of the Society, striving in every word and deed to make its ideals the ideals of my school and of my life." The awarding of gold pins officially enrolled them in this worthy national organization.

Only students who have demonstrated noteworthy achievements in the areas of scholarship, citizenship, leadership, and service are inducted into the ranks of the National Honor Society. They are carefully chosen by members of the Society and the faculty on the basis of these qualities. The final six or seven boys who become new members at each induction represent the outstanding citizens of our Girard community.

In our Junior year, Charles Anton, Henry Grabowski, Carl Hoffman, Lowery Mell, Don Marquette, and John Urofsky were called to the platform from the high school assembly to take the official pledge. When the Senior members graduated, this group of boys elected Don Marquette as their president, Henry Grabowski as vice-president, and Carl Hoffman as secretary-treasurer.

In the early part of the fall semester, Robert Bettarel, James Costello, James McKendrick, Malcolm Meizen, Kenneth Morrow, and John Moser were elected into the Society from our class. The following term, Don Marquette was re-elected president, while Charles Anton became the new vice-president and James McKendrick, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. Albert H. Schoell served as faculty sponsor of the Society and did a commendable job in guiding its activities throughout the year.

Our life at Girard was indeed enriched by the constant efforts of the members of the National Honor Society to improve our school. The countless little tasks which are an inevitable part of good growth in any school were performed willingly and efficiently by each member without any desire for reward. This attitude toward Girard and their fellow classmates has earned them their position and the respect of everyone of us.

Many innovations were introduced in the programs of WGC during 1957-58. The "Interview of the Month," with popular faculty personalities was the highlight of the year. Messers. Zarella, Richardson, and Keller were only a few of the participants.

Other ideas that became reality were the "Slogan of the Week," the "Comment of the Week," (a critical analysis by the announcer of a pertinent world problem), the popular "WGC Hit List," published weekly by the announcing staff, the "Gala Christmas Program" starring Rich Seman as jolly old St. Nick, and Girard's favorite radio game "True or False in Humor."

Under the direction of Head Announcer Jim Jacobs and our two hard-working Script Writers, Henry Grabowski and Bob Costello, together with the supervision of Mr. Henry V. Andrews, this edition of WGC was guided through its most successful year.

Assisting Henry and Bob with the scripts were Joel Batalsky who covered wrestling, Walt Palmer reporting basketball news, Ed Eglowsky as fencing reporter, Ken Morrow assigned to the swimming team, John Moser covering soccer, Charles Anton who wrote on the intramural sports programs, and Mike Ursone and Harry Friebe who kept tabs on social news and current events.

The fellows who brought the show to life every Monday morning with Jim Jacobs by taking alternating turns were Walt Casey, Chuck Vrabel, Tim Sullivan, Ed Hosharian, Dom Garofalo, John McFadden, Jim McKendrick, Mike Soccio, Tom Swinburne, and Terry Clark. The most important man back stage was Ted McCabe serving as the engineer. All of these boys did a commendable job in producing the WGC programs.

Our class can truthfully say that our edition of WGC is a milestone in radio broadcasting at Girard.

Student Center

*First Row: Mr. Dunkel, C. Roberts, J. McKendrick
Second Row: M. Meizen, R. Frey, R. Jones, R. Bettarel, J. Bruno*

In our span of years at Girard we have seen the dream of a student-run store located on the College grounds evolve into the present, much appreciated Student Center.

It can be said that no other organization has rendered as much personal service to so many boys as the Student Center. As smaller boys our weekly trips to the "Studie" on Saturday were eagerly anticipated events. With each successive year the Center improved with the addition of an ice cream freezer, a popcorn machine, and a host of miscellaneous items ranging from stamps to senior bonnets. On special occasions such as Founder's Day and Mothers' Day, the Center and its various stands were always stacked with such items as "muds," canes, banners, candy, and ice cream. Whenever the doors were swung open for business, there was more than an opportunity to buy an ice cream sandwich or coke; it provided a common meeting place where one could chat with friends, play a game of pool, or listen to the juke box.

Twice a year the Student Center moves its premises to Founder's Hall to stage the Canteen Dances. These informal affairs have provided a friendly atmosphere and have earned a high place on our social program.

Clyde Roberts, Manager, and the handful of boys comprising his staff devoted their efforts to making the store a credit to Girard and themselves. Serving on the staff with Roberts were James McKendrick, Assistant Manager; Malcolm Meizen, Bookkeeper; Raymond Frey, Assistant Bookkeeper; Robert Bettarel, Joseph Bruno, and Richard Jones as counterheads. A large measure of the continuing success must be accredited to Mr. George Dunkel the faculty sponsor, who worked diligently with the staff to improve the store.

The profits of the Student Center were used to augment funds for The Corinthian and class dances and to support new economic ventures as gar net duffel bags, school book covers, and other such innovations.

In every phase of its operation the Student Center has proved to be a valuable and worthwhile organization to the Girard student body.

Student Council

*Seated: J. Frigiola, R. Stidham, C. Roberts, R. Bettarel, W. Vanderaar, J. McKendrick, T. Hipple
Standing: T. Ellis, P. Hilliard, T. Flanagan, Mr. Keller, H. Leister, P. Casey, R. Popdan,
D. Marquette, C. Hoffman, E. Coccagna, J. Myers, C. Basber*

Bob Bettarel's leadership, combined with his sincere interest and energy, created a Student Council which made definite advances in the growth of this important representative body. A closer collaboration of students and faculty was developed. An entirely new idea, the Senior Dating Privilege, was the result of Council efforts. Representatives were sent to a general meeting of the councils of private schools in this area at the Abington Friends School. Also there were the problems of school morale and the consideration of the many questions raised by individuals. It was, in general, a group symbolizing the problems of democratic procedure.

Officers chosen for the year were: Vice-President, Don Marquette; Recording Secretary, Clyde Roberts; Corresponding Secretary, Carl Hoffman. The chairman of the Council's Committees were: Ray Popdan, athletics; Wayne Vanderaar, Thomas Flanagan, and Harry Leister, entertainment; Don Marquette and Carl Hoffman, clothing; Jim McKendrick, household; and Dick Stidham, social. Other activities were represented as follows; Student Center, Clyde Roberts; "Girard News," Walter Casey; Battalion, Wayne Vanderaar; and Junior High, Paul Hilliard.

With every area of College life represented in the Council there is obviously a clear channel to present any points of view or requests for fair discussion. There is also a great opportunity for the Council to exert real influence in the constructive solution of school problems. We feel that the effectiveness of the Council in both directions has been improved by the present group.

Both Mr. Keller and Mr. Morrison have worked patiently to give the Council good guidance and helpful criticism. We admire them for their principles and thank them for their deep interest and the hours they have given us.

Social Life

Our first real social adventure took place in our sophomore year. Fresh from eight weeks of grooming in the art of the dance the boys exhibited their abilities at the "Sophomore Coke Party." The results are memorable.

At our Junior dance in the following year there was a degree of grace and polish which the summer vacation and its opportunities had created. New and varied dance styles appeared.

For the officers of the Battalion there were the Cadet Officers' dances, perhaps the most enjoyable of our social life, the preparation: shining brass, polishing shoes, new uniforms, corsages, cabs, and time extensions. Then the big night with the imposing honor guard, the swirling gowns, the music, and above all the girls.

The Swing Band had its parties with "canned" music. Many boys attended dances by invitation at girls' schools, particularly Carson Valley, Ellis, and the Lankenau School.

Finally there was the Commencement Dance and the dinner for the Class given by the Alumni. For all these parties we gratefully thank our class hosts and hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Zarella, and our special thanks to Miss Miriam McGhee.

Allen Hall Life

*Seated: Mr. Pease, Mrs. Pease, Mr. Stewart
Standing: Mr. Wilson, Mr. Lander, Dr. White, Dr. Ziel*

Our dreams of becoming Seniors became a reality as we entered Allen Hall to begin our final year of Girard life. It was to be our last opportunity as Girardians, to express by real accomplishment, our gratitude for all that had been done for us.

And so with the aid of Dr. Zeil, Dr. White, Mr. Lander, Mr. Pease, Mr. Wilson, and Mr. Mahoney, our competent, congenial housemasters and advisors, we accepted the responsibility which has always been synonymous with the name "Senior."

During the succeeding weeks, there developed a class spirit such as we had never known. We moulded ourselves into a closely knit unit. Gradually we came to realize that Allen Hall is more than just a place to live; it is a way of life.

The annual trip to Washington and the house parties were two events that everyone profoundly enjoyed. The house parties, which took place in the Commons Room of Allen, were always appreciated. The Washington trip had a deeper meaning than just a pleasant experience and a vacation from school. It gave us a living illustration of our sacred American heritage. To the Alumni, whose thoughtful generosity made this trip possible, we say, "Thank you" from the bottom of our hearts.

As we, the class of 1958, prepare to depart from this our foster home into the world of manhood, we vow that deep in our hearts, we shall always cherish with affection, the wonderful memories of our life in Allen Hall and the friends with whom we lived there.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

As in the past, the Photography Club has contributed much to the campus publications. The members cover athletic events, social activities, take team, club, and staff pictures; in fact they are a very busy group.

This year we have had a hard-working and an extremely interested set of press photographers. They are responsible for the splendid job done on the majority of the pictures in the book you are now reading.

The important job of uniting and leading the club was well carried out by their officers; William Evans, President; Kit Leithiser, Vice-President; and Thomas Martin, Secretary-Treasurer.

To the boys, the class of '58 extends well deserved thanks.

RIFLE CLUB

The Rifle Club, now four years old, has had another successful season. This year it boasts a membership of twenty-five Seniors. At the first meeting elections were held and Norm Kaucher was chosen President, a position which he well deserved. Other officers were Rich Stidham, Vice-President; Ken Morrow, Secretary; and Chester Wehry, Senior Range Officer.

Ten of the outstanding riflemen were chosen to represent Girard in postal matches with teams from all over the United States, Hawaii, and Eastern Canada. Members of the "Dead Eye Squad" as it was called were Kaucher, Morrow, Schluger, Seasack, Yocum, Ratajczak, Senick, Wehry, Eglowsky, and G. Herbert.

Third Row: P. Schluger, B. Davis, A. Herbert, D. Christ
Fourth Row: J. Seasack, Mr. Conklin, V. Jurciukonis, F. Ratajczak*

Much of the Club's success this year is owed to the faithful sponsorship of Mr. Howard Conklin, who will retire this year. To him we say, "Thank you, sir, and good luck to you in the future."

SENIORS

THE CORINTHIANS

Dr. Raymond I. Haskell and Donald R. Marquette

To the Class of 1958:

What a pleasure, satisfaction, privilege, and honor is yours in the forthcoming hour! Graduation from Girard College--one of the most famous boys' schools in the world. And what a pleasure it has been to work with you over the days and years behind us to this great end--or is it a beginning! Anyhow, let's make the final effort here the best yet.

Soon you will enter upon your vocational careers or college training. Then will come craftsmanship, engineering, banking, medicine, law, government service, the military, the ministry, teaching, politics, and high citizenship characteristic of so many Girard alumni. And next--marriage and new American families with fathers of whom wives, children, and fellow citizens will be immensely proud. That is our picture of the Class of 1958 five and ten years from today. Leaders in American democracy!

But this will always be your Alma Mater--the "mother's knee" at which you learned the most precious lessons of your lives. Here you built your foundations. Here you were inspired with the finest ideals of thought, feeling, and conduct. As we saw you growing into the richness of these ideals, you grew in our respect and affection. Many of you have earned the strongest recommendation we could possibly give high school students. Have the courage to be your best and live your best as you enter the outside world with our richest blessing.

Life is a mission. Live it nobly and you cannot fail.

Sincerely,

Raymond I. Haskell

When members of the High School elected Bob as president of the student body, they chose an individual unusually well qualified to lead them. Reliable in any situation, Bob could be observed working efficiently in some responsible position throughout many parts of the campus. We shall sorely miss a devoted Girardian and real friend of the highest quality.

Fellow Girardians:

Shortly after you read this letter, we, the Seniors, will leave this school and accept the responsibilities for which we have been preparing. Our life at Girard is completed, but our service to her should continue through the years. As loyal alumni and as useful citizens in our communities we must continue to lend strength to the name of our school.

We can see now that there is much that we could have done better. If you who follow us understand these words, you will realize that you still have the opportunity to help Girard, by your work, by your accomplishment, by your loyalty to the ideals of Stephen Girard. If each of you contributes his share, you will find that you become more and more a part of our school. Remember, too, that Girard is also our home, the home of all Girardians for more than a century.

You must choose good leaders, worthy of your respect; they will be your spokesmen and will need your cooperation in the development of a student government which will face the school problems honestly and confidently.

Before we leave let us all be aware that each of us is a permanent representative of Girard College and that the heritage which is ours demands the best that we are and have.

Sincerely,

Robert Bettarel

The fact that our last year at Girard was such a success can be attributed to the fine leadership which Don, as our president, displayed. His quick interest in all our problems and his warm "bello" will never be forgotten by those of us who had the pleasure of knowing him and working with him. Classmates like Don make parting difficult.

Dear Classmates:

Today, as we walk down the aisle of the Chapel for the last time, our lives at Girard will be swiftly drawing to a close. We will leave this great school, which has been the scene of our growing, playing, learning, and sharing for the past ten years, to enter into a new world. We will depart from each other with mixed sentiments; the sorrow of saying goodbye to our closest friends and the happiness of knowing that our lifelong goal of graduation has been fulfilled.

Yes, classmates, we have gone "from child to growing man" within the walls of a wonderful school. Never forget the many benefits that we have received from Mr. Girard. Our continued loyalty to his school will be a small payment for such great generosity.

In the future, let us use the sound education that we have received here to make a better life and a better world. I wish you success in whatever field of endeavor you may choose. Be satisfied only when you have done the very best job that you are capable of doing.

I would like to voice my personal appreciation to everyone in our class for the fine support and cooperation that I have received during the year. It has been a privilege and a pleasure to serve as your president. May God bless everyone of you.

Sincerely,

Donald R. Marquette

The closing whistle of the soccer game with Northeast Public concluded the 1957 soccer season at Girard with a record of 5 wins, 5 losses, and 1 tie.

The team exhibited strength in every area defensively and offensively yet for some reason never found a consistent scoring punch. Our losses were well played, close games in which the team gave their best efforts and exhibited exemplary sportsmanship.

Playing the line were Ray Podan, Carl Hoffman, Roy DiLiberto, Tom Flanagan, Vic Rocco, and Bill Long. The halfbacks were Bill Mell, Reds Nolan, Tom Kubachka, Jim McKendrick, Bob Esposito, Bill Killen, John McFadden, and John Moser. Mario Tagliaferri, Den Pharo, Rich Lewis, and Joseph Byrne were fullbacks. Guarding the goal were Dave Hunscher and Tom Baggio.

We wish to express our appreciative thanks to Coach Wolstenholme who did a splendid job both in shaping up the team within two weeks of their first game and for fine coaching throughout the season. Credit is also due to the hard working managers Wesley McDonald and Hugh Carpenter for their good work.

Girard has always been noted for the fine swimming teams which it produces. It can be said with pride that comes from achievement, that this year's team has certainly upheld the reputations that past teams have given Girard. Under the co-captainship of Terry Clark and John Roach and the excellent coaching of Mr. Jones, the team finished with a record of 8 wins and 3 losses.

John Roach broke the formidable time barrier in the 150 yard individual medley previously held by Carl Havira by lowering it to 1:43.6. John also swam the 100 yard backstroke.

Other outstanding members of the team were 200 yard freestyler Terry Clark, 50 and 100 yard freestyler Don Barrett, breast stroker Ed Eglowsky, and individual medley swimmer Henry Miller.

Our divers this year were Ken Morrow and Mike Moroz who were constant winners.

We of the Class of '58 have enjoyed our year with Coach Jones and extend to him our thanks for his good work.

The record of seven wins and eight losses doesn't reveal the entire story behind this year's basketball season. Although loaded with potential ability at the beginning of the season, the team dropped their first six games. After a one-point victory against a fair Bryn Athyn team, the team improved considerably and went on to win six of their last eight games.

Outstanding players were Chuck Vrabel, Spider Wilson, Reds Killen, Dave Hunscher, Walt Palmer, and Mark Levin backed up by a strong reserve of Rich Kopec, John McFadden, Carl Hoffman, Bob Chryst, Ed Toff, and John Kerr.

Chuck Vrabel set a new school rebound record with a total of 249 rebounds and was high scorer with a total of 209 points or 13.4 points per game.

To Coach Hartman we express our thanks for his faith and efforts.

The quality of the coaching, the ability and enthusiasm of the team members, and the strong competition of opposing teams were the important characteristics of the 1958 wrestling season.

The record of six wins and four losses is definitely worthy of praise when one takes into consideration the caliber of the opponents. The Hill School and the Bainbridge Naval Academy were added to the schedule in the place of two other schools.

Our team placed fourth in the Episcopal Invitation Wrestling Tournament. Two Juniors, Tom Baggio at 154 pounds and Rocco DiBattista at 165 pounds, were the champions of their divisions. Girard Senick, captain of the team and undefeated during the last four seasons placed third in the tournament.

Other members of the squad were Joel Batalsky at 145 pounds, Earl Klinger, Lynn Ritchey, and Paul Schluger who did a fine job coaching the younger boys.

We are sincerely grateful for the untiring effort and guidance of Coach Thomas Bradley. It was a season and a sport filled with good memories.

Again the Yale Trophy will make its home here at Girard. The Trophy, awarded by the Philadelphia division of the Amateur Fencers' League of America, was won by Coach Rothberg's team. This makes a total of three and one-half consecutive years it will have been held by Girard.

Successfully defending the trophy were Captain Tim Tewes who received a Warren Sword for foil competition, Charles Zarcone, recipient of a similar sword for his effort in saber competition, and Wayne Vanderaar who took a substantial second place in the competition.

Under the superb coaching of Mr. Rothberg the fencers finished the season, winning six of their eight meets. Wayne Vanderaar went undefeated in regular season competition, while Captain Tim Tewes won all but two of his bouts. Charles Zarcone and John Novosel also contributed with winning seasons.

The team under Coach Rothberg has been a great credit to sports at Girard. Thanks must go to Stansbury Minemier who, as manager of the team, was invaluable.

The baseball team at the time of this writing has won two games, lost one and tied one. We won our opening game with a decisive 8-1 victory over Valley Forge Military Academy, and followed by defeating a P.S.D. nine 4-3. The loss to Marple-Newton 4-3 hurt, and our tie with Haverford, 1-1, was not a measure of the team's ability. This brief record does seem to indicate that we have a good team in the making.

Coaches Hartman and Cooper have the team, we believe, started well on a baseball season that will be good. We thank them for their interest and for all they have done for us.

The track team at the writing of this review has not completed its season. It has, however, been very successful. Victorious in its first four meets it is apparently headed for an unusually good record.

In Richard Cusatis, Dennis Pharo, and Bill Mell, there was a scoring power for 100 yard and 200 yard dashes. The first two also ran the quarter mile. Paul Cassel placed first in the mile in the completion of the initial three meets, Richard Stidham, Jack Hamilton, and John Perazzelli also scored in this event. Dick Stidham, Joe Wilson, and Paul Schlager competed in the high hurdles, while Bill Mell, Den Pharo, and Bob Blizzard ran the lows.

In the field events the team had Bill Mell and Girard Senick in the high jump, Mell and Pharo in the broad jump, and Bob Bettarel in the pole vault.

Outstanding Junior members of the team were Mike Sedlock, Jack Hamilton, Rocco DiBattista, Roy DiLiberto, Bill Long, and Jim Reynolds. It is the competition provided by these boys and other members of the squad that makes the team what it is. We wish them the best of luck in 1959.

The team has been good because the coach is good. Coach Bradley will always have the respect and gratitude of his athletes. To him we express our deepest thanks.
